

DIRECTOR ALUMNI
Newly Created Role
Based Brisbane, Australia
Competitive salary and benefits

QUT aspires to provide outstanding real-world education through physical and virtual learning environments and innovative courses that lead to excellent outcomes for graduates living in a diverse and complex environment characterised by rapid, transformative change.

The University's real world research priorities focus on being a globally leading university that delivers solutions to the challenges of today and of the future through high impact, transdisciplinary research in partnership with end-users, leveraging QUT's deep technological strengths and aligned to human capital and innovation needs of the economy.

QUT's Gardens Point campus is located at the gateway to Brisbane's CBD, alongside two city bridges that span the Brisbane River and the lush City Botanical Gardens. It enjoys the luxury of a semi-tropical climate, an outdoor lifestyle and warm weather year-round.

The Director Alumni leads the alumni engagement program with strategic input into the Advancement strategy, identifying philanthropic and other strategic engagement initiatives for alumni on a global scale. This role will lead and develop a team of alumni engagement professionals to deliver the alumni engagement priorities for the University over the next three years.

Reporting to the Executive Director, Advancement, the Director Alumni works closely with the Director Development and is a member of the senior management team.

You will bring the ability to drive new initiatives that foster purposeful alumni engagement with a range of tangible financial and non-financial benefits including giving, lifelong learning, career mentoring and industry engagement. Collaborative team leadership skills combined with your ability to think laterally will also be essential.

Candidates with transferable skills gained within a business development and/or relationship management role are also encouraged to apply.
