

Loreto Normanhurst

Sydney, NSW

Director of Philanthropy & Community Engagement

Competitive salary and benefits

Established in 1897, Loreto Normanhurst is a leading Sydney independent, Catholic day and boarding school for girls from Years 5-12.. Loreto seeks to affirm and encourage the development of young women who will take their place in the world as leaders and people of commitment. Located in Sydney's leafy Upper North Shore, the school is set on over 25 acres of glorious grounds, and offers state of the art facilities for approximately 1,100 students, over 150 of whom are boarders from Country NSW.

To ensure that students today and in the future will enjoy a rich learning experience in carefully planned and maintained buildings with the latest technology, Loreto relies on the strength of its ties with its alumni and community and increasingly, on philanthropic support from its donor community.

The School's leadership team is committed to investing in a much more sustainable and robust philanthropic fundraising program and now seeks a Director of Philanthropy & Community Engagement who, as a member of the School's leadership team, will drive this new philanthropic agenda forward. The Director will lead and manage all aspects of the School's philanthropy and community engagement program, both strategically and operationally, with a view to embedding a culture of philanthropy across the School.

The successful candidate will demonstrate experience in developing and implementing effective philanthropic programs, including annual and planned-giving, with a track record in the management of a portfolio of major gift prospects and closure of significant philanthropic gifts. Your visionary leadership style will be matched by your ability to nurture and develop staff in a collaborative manner. Fundamental to success will be an appreciation of the School's mission and a strong connection with the School's values which underpin its every facet.
