
Event Registration, Cancellation and Refund Policy

1. PURPOSE

To clarify FIA's event registration cancellation and refund procedures.

2. SCOPE

This policy covers all FIA professional development events.

3. DEFINITIONS

Administration Fee: A fee deducted from a refund. It covers handling by staff to process registrations and all bank fees associated with the transfer.

4. POLICY STATEMENT

4.1 FIA reserves the right to alter any of the arrangements for any event as published, either before or during the event and to cancel or terminate the event, or to refuse an enrolment as permitted by law.

4.2 FIA does not accept responsibility for any costs, charges or fines incurred by delegates in the process of attending an event.

4.3 Only individuals who are registered and wear a name badge may attend an FIA event.

4.4 Prices for FIA events are as advertised. No further discounts are available.

4.5 Payment of a registration

- a) Fees are payable prior to the commencement of the event. If payment has not been received attendance will not be permitted.
- b) Member rates are only available to financial members of FIA for the current membership year. Eligibility is based on FIA's member database.
- c) Where an Early bird discount is advertised Payments for Early bird registrations must be received no later than close of business on the closing date advertised. If Early bird fees have not been received by FIA by the closing date full rates apply.
- d) Registrations by EFT and cheque will not be processed until payment has been received. If payment is received after closing dates outlined above additional fees will apply.
- e) FIA reserves the right to refuse attendance to individuals who have not paid in full for their registration.

4.6 Transferring registrations (unless otherwise specified)

Event Registration, Cancellation and Refund Policy

- a) Full registrations can be transferred provided that any additional charges are paid at the time of transfer (e.g. Members transferring registration to a non-member), and that FIA is notified in writing prior to the commencement of the event.
- b) Pre-event Substitutions are permitted only with the prior agreement of FIA. Requests for substitution must be made in writing to training@fia.org.au
- c) Substitutions made on the day of the event require written permission from the original delegate and prior payment must be made for any additional charges incurred.
- d) Delegates are not allowed to share a registration – one registration per delegate. FIA reserves the right to advertise a shared registration in conjunction with a specific event. Only when advertised does it apply.

4.7 Conference

FIA's Fundraising Conference is held annually.

Registration Cancellation	Refund Policy	Administration Fee
Thirty (30) working days prior to event	Full refund less administration fee	20% of the original registration fee
Within thirty (30) working days prior to event	No refund except in exceptional circumstances at FIA's sole discretion, less administration fee where refund is applicable. Email training@fia.org.au	20% of the original registration fee when a refund is applicable

Conditions specific to registering for an FIA Conference

- a) Full registrations and payment must be received by Close of Business one (1) week prior to Conference.
- b) Registration fees do not include insurance of any kind. It is strongly recommended that at the time you register for the conference and book your travel that you take out an insurance policy of your choice to cover any eventuality. The policy should include loss of fees/deposit through cancellation of your participation in the conference, or through cancellation of the conference, loss of air fares through cancellation for any reason, loss of tour monies through cancellation for any reason including airline or related services strikes within Australia, Force Majeure or any other reason, medical expenses (including sickness and accident cover), loss or damage to personal property, additional expenses and repatriation should travel arrangements have to be altered. FIA cannot take any responsibility for any participant failing to arrange their own insurance. Should Conference be cancelled,

Event Registration, Cancellation and Refund Policy

FIA's costs will be paid from delegate registration fees. Any remaining monies from the delegate registration fees will be refunded to delegates following cancellation.

- c) All accommodation bookings should be made by the delegate.
- d) Registrant's contact details (name, organisation, business email, business postal address) will be provided to other delegates, sponsors and exhibitors unless registrant selects otherwise on the registration form.
- e) Attendees are advised that photographs and videos will be taken during the conference and reproduced for promotional purposes.

Additional terms for FIA Conference 2022 – COVID-19 related issues

The FIA Conference 2022 will be held in-person from 23-25 February at the International Convention Centre (ICC) Sydney.

The health and safety of attendees (including delegates, speakers, exhibitors, sponsors, staff and all guests) is our highest priority. Fundraising Institute Australia is mindful of the health risks posed by COVID-19, and the importance of following official medical advice with respect to social distancing, practicing good hygiene and staying at home when unwell.

- a. All attendees are to practice social distancing and follow the COVID-safe venue policy and procedures.
- b. We request that any attendee who is feeling unwell or has cold or flu like symptoms, or who may have been in contact with someone with COVID-19, not attend the FIA Conference. You must cancel your in-person attendance by writing to training@fia.org.au as soon as possible for a refund to be considered. Substitute delegates will be accepted.

Event cancellation or change in event delivery/format due to COVID-19 related matter

If the event is no longer able to continue as planned due to a COVID-19 related matter, FIA will take all reasonable steps to move the event delivery to either hybrid (both in person and virtual attendees) or fully virtual (all attendees joining online). In this situation, you will be contacted by the FIA team, your registration will be rolled over to the new registration type and you will receive a partial refund. If requested by the delegate a full refund will be offered.

If the conference is cancelled altogether due to COVID-19 restrictions, you will receive a full refund of your conference registration.

Travel and accommodation bookings and cancellations are the responsibility of the delegate and FIA will not take responsibility for any cancellation fees incurred.

Event Registration, Cancellation and Refund Policy

Delegate Cancellation due to COVID-19 related matter

If a delegate is no longer able to attend the conference due to a government-imposed lockdown, quarantine requirement or travel restriction, they should contact FIA as soon as possible to discuss options. In this situation, FIA will take reasonable steps to provide the delegate with access to the content online and offer a partial refund. If the content cannot be offered online, nor a substitute delegate able to attend, then a full refund will be offered.

The health and safety of delegates is our highest priority. Fundraising Institute Australia is mindful of the health risks posed by COVID-19, and the importance of following official medical advice with respect to social distancing, practicing good hygiene and staying at home when unwell. We request that any delegate who is feeling unwell or has cold or flu like symptoms, or who may have been in contact with someone with COVID-19, not attend the conference.

If you are unable to attend the conference due to a COVID-19 related matter, please contact training@fia.org.au as soon possible for a refund to be considered. Substitute delegates will be considered at the discretion of the organisers.

Travel and accommodation bookings and cancellations are the responsibility of the delegate and FIA will not take responsibility for any cancellation fees incurred.

State and Territory Events

- a) Local Events consist of any locally run event, usually less than four (4) hours in duration.
- b) Due to COVID-19, for any state events that will be held face-to-face, a full refund will be provided where cancellation has been made due to illness.

Registration Cancellation	Refund Policy	Administration Fee
Four (4) working days prior to event	Full refund less administration fee	20% of the original registration fee
Within four (4) working days prior to event	No refund except in exceptional circumstances at FIA's sole discretion, less administration fee where refund is applicable.
