Director of Philanthropy
Based Sydney, Australia
Competitive salary and benefits

Wenona educates and empowers young women, in a global learning community, to serve and shape their world. As it looks to the future, Wenona is focussed on being innovative, creative and global, striving to deliver world class, contemporary, relevant education for girls, with a culture based on positive, respectful relationships, a focus on leadership and service.

Pivotal to achieving its mission are the strong relationships and the philanthropic support from Wenona’s donor community, given through the Wenona Foundation. Wenona now seeks a Director of Philanthropy to develop & implement effective strategies for creating and maintaining fundraising initiatives for Wenona and to maintain philanthropic relationships within the wider Wenona community.

To be successful in the role, you will present a strong track record in developing and implementing philanthropy programs, coupled with the ability to cultivate and secure major philanthropic gifts, gained in an educational or broader not for profit environment. The ability to advocate for philanthropic support of the School to a wide variety of internal and external stakeholders will be fundamental. An alignment with the School’s vision and its values of courage, strength, grace, wisdom and kindness will be vital.

For a confidential discussion about this opportunity, please contact Jocelyn Kelty, Director, Richmond Associates, Australia Office on +61 (0)2 8218 2185, or by email at info@richmond-associates.com. Further information, including the job description is available here: https://richmond-associates.com/jobs/

Applications close: Friday 8 August 2022