The Professional Body for Australian Fundraising

Fundraising Institute Australia (FIA) is the national organisation that represents professional fundraising in Australia. FIA has over 780 members, ranging from small to large organisations, which account for around 80% of the total fundraising revenue. These members are individuals and organisations that are dedicated to the profession of fundraising and share a commitment to the values of philanthropy.

Members and partners are invited to promote their brand, product, or service to the highly engaged audience of FIA members and professional fundraisers, including CEOs, Heads of Fundraising, and others in the sector.
